

Please reconsider the TC Act of 1996. Working in and listening to radio is no longer exciting. The music is bland and homogenized. Worse, the small radio company I work for is getting negatively affected by giants like Clear Channel and Infinity.

Basically, deregulation has negatively affected radio listeners and radio employees--i.e. pretty much everyone in the U.S.

Thank you for your time.